

Patagonia Park

ITINERARY IS PART OF PROGRAMS TO MARBLE CHAPELS

Patagonia National Park is a protected natural area of over 300,000 hectares located in the Aysén Region of Chilean Patagonia. Created from a land donation by the Tompkins Conservation Foundation and the integration of pre-existing national reserves, it stands out as one of the most ambitious ecological restoration projects in South America.

Itinerary:

Time	Description
09:00 hrs.	Departure from Parador Loberías del Sur.
09:30 hrs.	Arrival at the confluence of the Baker and Neff Rivers. Easy hike to a viewpoint.
11:00 hrs.	Visit to Patagonia National Park and the Visitor Center.
12:00 hrs.	Hike to admire the magical flora, fauna, and geography along one of the park’s trails, between 4 and 5 km long, easy
13:30 hrs.	Picnic lunch at the campsite.
14:30 hrs.	End of hike and departure from the park to Parador Loberías del Sur, with photo stops.
16:00 hrs.	Arrival at Parador Loberías del Sur. The rest of the afternoon is free for other activities or to relax and enjoy the beautiful view of the spectacular Baker River from the Parador
20:00 hrs.	Dinner

Includes:

- Food/snack service is provided en route
- Bilingual guides during the whole excursion

